

World Water Congress XV

International Water Resources Association (IWRA)
Edinburgh, Scotland. 25 - 29 May 2015

Special Session SSC Flood Risk Management in the Context of Global Change

Supported by IAHR, ICE Scotland and FCERM.net

	Speaker	Organisation	Title
2.45pm	Garry Pender	Chair, ICE Scotland	Introduction and welcome by Session Chair
2.50pm	Carlos Escartin	Water Directorate, Ministry of Agriculture food and Water, Spain	Keynote Address: Overview of Flood Risk Management in Europe: implementation of Floods Directive in Spain
3.20pm	Garry Pender	Heriot-Watt University	Flood Risk Management in the Context of Change
3.30pm	Mark McLaughlin	Scottish Environment Protection Agency	'Flood Hazard and Climate Change: adapting to change and changing to adapt'
3.45pm	Paul Sayers	Sayers and Partners	Assessing future flood risks and opportunities for adaptation in the UK
4.00pm	All Speakers		Question and Answer

4.15- 4.45pm Break for Refreshments

	Speaker	Organisation	Title
4.45pm	Roger Falconer	President IAHR & Cardiff University	Keynote Address: Modelling Risk of People Safety and Vehicle Mobility for Extreme Flood Events
5.15pm	Graham Coates	Durham University	The SESAME project on small businesses: understanding flood impacts, evaluating the effects of adaption and promoting resilience
5.30pm	Nigel Wright	University of Leeds	Delivering and Evaluating Multiple Flood Risk Benefits in Blue-Green Cities
5.45pm	Catherine Butler	Exeter University	Social and Political Considerations of Flooding
6.00pm	All Speakers		Question and Answer

World Water Congress XV

International Water Resources Association (IWRA)
Edinburgh, Scotland. 25 - 29 May 2015

ICE Scotland Drinks Reception

At 6.15pm following the Special Session, Professor Garry Pender, Chair of ICE Scotland would like to invite delegates attending the Session to join speakers and ICE Scotland Special Guests for drinks. The drinks reception is hosted by ICE Scotland with the aim of providing networking opportunities for those working in Flood Risk Management across a number of sectors, environments and countries.

The drinks reception will conclude at 7pm.